

the final forward state has read the whole input left to right, the final backward state right to left; concatenated, the classifier sees the beginning as well as the end

