

(a) stacked: the output sequence of one layer is the input of the next

(b) bidirectional: one network each way, states concatenated

