

(a) three units over the data range

(b) its gradient is identically zero

(c) a drifting bias switches units off for good

